A Note of Thanks — Award for Achievement and Cultural Week Ceremony 2026

Dear Colleagues, Students, and Friends,

As we bring the Award for Achievement and Cultural Week Ceremony 2026 to a successful close, I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone whose effort and dedication made this occasion truly memorable.

It was a moment of great honour and prestige for Holy Family Red Crescent Medical College to have Dr. Zubaida Rahman, Vice President of ZRF and esteemed Cardiologist, grace the ceremony as our Chief Guest. Her presence added distinction to the occasion, and her encouraging words remain a source of inspiration for our students, faculty, and staff alike. We are deeply grateful for the time and consideration she extended to our institution.

To the organising committee — your meticulous planning, tireless coordination, and attention to every detail, from logistics to the overall flow of the week's events, ensured that the ceremony proceeded with grace and dignity. Your commitment behind the scenes made this celebration possible, and it did not go unnoticed.

To our award-winning students — congratulations on your outstanding achievements. Your hard work, discipline, and excellence, both academic and cultural, are a source of immense pride for this institution. May this recognition inspire you to pursue even greater heights, and may you continue to inspire your peers.

To all students who participated in and enriched Cultural Week — your creativity, enthusiasm, and spirit brought colour and vibrancy to our campus. Every performance, exhibit, and contribution reflected the talent and diversity of our student body.

To our faculty and staff — your guidance, mentorship, and unwavering support have shaped the success of this ceremony and our students. This achievement belongs as much to you as it does to them, and I thank you for the quiet, consistent dedication you bring to your work each day.

I also extend my appreciation to our guests, well-wishers, and all who graced the occasion with their presence and support.

Together, we continue to uphold the values of excellence, creativity, and community that define our institution. I look forward to celebrating many more such moments with all of you.

With warm regards and appreciation,

Prof. Dr. K. M. Mozibul Haque
Principal
